

What types of complaints is the College of Audiologists and Speech – Language Pathologists authorized to handle?

The College of Audiologists and Speech – Language Pathologists (the College), is the regulatory College for the professions of audiology and speech – language pathology. As such, the College accepts and responds to written complaints about audiologists and speech – language pathologists who are registered with the College.

The College also responds to information about individuals who are not registered with the College and are presenting as an audiologist or speech – language pathologist or practicing audiology or speech – language pathology in Manitoba.

The College deals with a variety of matters which relate to providing safe, ethical care and appropriate professional conduct.

The College is not able to handle every kind of complaint; some matters that fall outside the legal authority of the College.

Once a complaint is received, it is reviewed and you will be notified if the College is able to assist with the matter.

For more information, visit the “For the Public” section of the College website, at www.caslpm.ca

Confidentiality

Complaints and investigations are confidential unless the College has started regulatory inquiry proceedings.

In fairness to the audiologist or speech – language pathologist about whom you are filing a complaint, the College will share with her or him some or all of the information you submit, such as:

- Copies of documents you provide
- Copies of documents from other sources
- Your personal contact information (name, address, email, telephone number) or that of others who are involved in the matter.

How to file a complaint

1. Complete and sign the Complaint Form
2. Attach copies of any documents that relate to your complaint. Include any documents that you think will help to describe your complaint; indicate specific parts that you think are important.
3. Be sure to make copies of all the original documents. Keep the originals, and send only copies with your complaint.
4. Send the completed Complaint Form with copies of relevant documents to:

The Registrar
College of Audiologists and Speech – Language Pathologists of Manitoba
Unit 1 – 333 Vaughan Street

What happens next?

You will receive a communication from the College, either by email or regular post, to let you know your complaint was received.

The complaint will be carefully reviewed and assessed. If it is determined that the College is not authorized to deal with the matter, you will receive a notice.

The College will keep you informed of the status of your complaint. Similarly, the same courtesy is expected from others.

Commitment to a respectful environment

The College is committed to communicating with you in a respectful, professional, and civil manner. The complaint process and the circumstances that give rise to complaints can be stressful. However, the College will not accept racist, discriminatory or harassing behaviour or profane communications.
