

---

CASLPM Privacy Statement

CASLPM demonstrates a firm commitment to protecting the privacy and contact information of its registrants, and monitoring the material distributed through the College notification system.

Registrants may receive information

CASLPM permits the public and College registrants to distribute information for purposes that are in the public interest in accordance with the provisions of the RHPA, other relevant legislation, CASLPM regulations, by – laws and policies.

Usage and Distribution

Material approved for distribution is sent through the CASLPM notification system and posted on the College website. CASLPM does not release its contact information list to a third party.

Parties wishing to have material distributed through the CASLPM notification system or posted on this website make application to the CASLPM Office. Administrative processing fees apply.

Content

Any views, opinions, or information presented in the content of material distributed on behalf of a contracting party are solely those of the contracting party. CASLPM does not necessarily endorse the content and does not accept liability for consequences of any action taken on the basis of the information provided.

CASLPM does not assume any liability or responsibility for unintentional errors, accidental omissions, or incomplete content of this website or any links provided herein.

Contact the College

CASLPM welcomes your comments.

Contact the College Registrar: stephaniegordon@caslpm.ca