Regulatory Matters

Complaints Investigation

As of the writing of this report, three complaints have concluded, one complaint is awaiting the completion of undertakings, one complaint is under review, and one appeal is underway.

Committee Matters

Continuing Competency Committee & Non-Compliance Process

The Continuing Competency Committee has developed a process for the review of Registrants Competency that has been deemed incomplete. This may involve a formal complaint to the Complaints Investigation Committee, as Registrants have an obligation to complete Continuing Competency as outlined in the Regulated Health Professions Act (RHPA) Section 87(1) and the CASLPM General Regulations 192/2013 Part 6.

Practice Advisory Committee (PAC)

The Practice Advisory Committee is preparing and reviewing the following Practice Directions:

- Virtual Practice (survey comments reviewed and Council approval pending).
- Supervision PD & Guideline (final draft for Council review).
- Guideline on Interprofessional Collaboration of Public and Private Practitioners (research).
- Guideline on Diagnosis (research).

Advanced Competency Working Group (ACWG)

The Advanced Competency Working Group will begin work on dysphagia guidelines in the New Year.

Please contact the CASLPM office at office@caslpm.ca if you are interested in being involved on CASLPM Council, Committees, or working groups.

Council Strategic Focus and Tactical Items

Truth and Reconciliation Commission and Land Acknowledgement

- A draft Land Acknowledgement Statement has been prepared with the assistance of registrant Shanti Subedar (Speech-Language Pathologist) and external consultant Jessica Boucher-Cowie. We wish to acknowledge our gratitude to Shanti and Jessica for their assistance in the development of the draft.
- The draft will be presented to council for review and approval on November 30, 2024. Additional Indigenous organizations will be consulted prior to rollout of the Land Acknowledgement Statement.
- Future tactical items will be added as CASLPM continues its work on the recommendations made in the TRC, particularly with respect to healthcare and education.

Nominations Working Group

- A nominations working group is preparing for the upcoming election cycle in 2026.

Registrant Relations

- Tactical items under registrant relations are being developed in conjunction with the TRC calls to action and a focus on public protection and service.
